

Fifth-Grade Science Constructed Response

EART 2:[B] Summarize processes that shape Earth's surface and evidence

There are many different processes that shape the surface of the Earth. Mountains are built and lowered by different Earth processes.

Name an Earth process that results in building mountains then explain how this Earth process builds mountains. (2 points)

Name an Earth process that results in mountain lowering then explain how this Earth process lowers mountains. (2 points)

Click here to print this question. 